DAVE GOODIN'S TRIAL.—Dave Goodin, who was arrested last Sunday night on a charge of horse stealing almost two years old, will be brought before Justice Gray next Saturday for preliminary examination.

CLOSE OF THE APRIL TERM.—The April term of district court will be adjourned sine die next Saturday. Attorneys having business before the court should be present or they will have cause to regret it until the next term.

AT HOME FOR TWENTY DAYS.—Marcos Estrada, a peace disturber of the city, who was arrested and celebrated Labor Day in jail, was placed on trial in Justice Johnstone's court yesterday, convicted and jailed for twenty days.

HE'S GOING TO GET WELL.—Frank Doyle of Oakland, Cal., came here a couple of months ago suffering from a hemorrhage from the lungs and was expected to die. The climate of something has done so much for him that the doctors say that he is going to get well.

NEW TELEGRAPH WIRE.—P. Heblinger, foreman, with five men arrived from Los Angeles yesterday and is now engaged in stringing a wire south from Phoenix. Mr. Heblinger says he wants to take some of this weather to Los Angeles with him to use next January.

FAST FREIGHT TIME.—A car of meats arrived in town yesterday over the S. F. & P. just four and a half days from Kansas City. This is the fastest freight time on record from that point. The regular time is seven days and the regular passenger time three days.

NEW MEDICAL EXAMINER.—Dr. W. L. Woodruff was yesterday appointed a member of the board of medical examiners of the territory to succeed Dr. C. D. Beiden, who was appointed last spring, but did not qualify. He represents the homeopathic school on the board.

FOR SHOOTING A HORSE.—A little colored boy named Williams will be tried by Justice Gray this morning for shooting a horse belonging to Clarence McKean. This was a Labor Day incident. The boy had no deadly purpose against the horse and did not see him until the gun, a small caliber affair, went off.

GOING TO MEXICO.—L. H. Landis of Hot Springs Junction is in the city on his way to the City of Mexico, where he will reside. Mr. Landis has been with the S. F. & P. company for the last four years and was last employed as station agent at Hot Springs Junction. While there he took up a quarter section of land which he has just sold.

THE KNIFE MAN SENTENCED.—Jose Robles, a local Jack the Ripper, who did not succeed in ripping to any alarming extent, was tried by Justice Johnstone yesterday and sentenced to sixty days in jail. Jose is the man who a few days ago while resisting arrest attempted to transform Constable Hi McDonald and his son George into hamburger steak.

TWENTY DAYS.—Refugio Vendola got drunk last week and was touching up the high places in the vicinity of Five Points to the disturbance of the residents thereabouts when an officer jailed him. He languished behind the bars till yesterday, when Justice Johnstone tried him and sentenced him to twenty days. He has resumed his occupation of languishing.

THE FINGER OF FATE.—There is a black Venus in this city toward whom the finger of fate is ominously pointing. The local police officers are keeping the aforesaid finger thoroughly posted that it may not be diverted from its direction. Meanwhile they are keeping their eyes on the dusky maid and awaiting developments. She is resident within the confines of the municipal boundary lines and it is be-

The result of the examination in so far as those who applied for county certificates are concerned will be known today. The result of examinations for territorial certificates will not be known until submitted to the territorial board.

BURMISTER-GAGE.—Mr. Robert Burmister of Prescott and Miss Martha Gage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Gage of Tempe were married in Prescott on Monday. They arrived in Phoenix on Monday evening in the private car of Assistant General Manager Wells of the S. F. & P. They went on to Tempe on the regular train. After a short visit there they will spend their honeymoon on the coast. The wedding was so quiet that the many friends of both parties did not hear of it until yesterday and so missed the opportunity to congratulate them.

A NEW MINING COMPANY.—Articles of incorporation of the Cedar Hill Mining company were filed yesterday. The incorporators are C. S. Kinney, H. E. Cary, T. E. Ellison, L. C. Hunter, J. E. Ross, John N. Pfeiffer, Ben Rothschild, H. C. Sites, J. B. Fye, J. H. Simmons, P. W. Smith, Jacob Colter, J. M. Henry, Louis A. Centolise, S. B. Fleming, Charles E. Moellering and J. S. Sites. The object of the company is to acquire mining properties in Arizona. The capitalization is fixed at $50,000, divided into 500,000 shares at 10 cents a share. The principal office of the company will be at Fort Wayne, Ind.

HUNTING FOR HOBOS.—Marshall Hooker and Constable Joe Balz yesterday afternoon beat a cane-brake and a big patch of sunflowers near the Tempe road and Seventh street for hobos. People residing in that vicinity had complained of petty thefts and said that they had seen smoke rising from the cane in the early morning from fires at which the hobos were evidently getting breakfast. They had also seen the denizens of the brake at different times of the day sitting in the shade of the trees which grew along the canal near by. The officers discovered ashes of fires and other signs of recent habitation, but there were no hobos found.

MAKING HER MARK.—Miss Mary F. O'Connor, a daughter of Contractor James O'Connor of this city, is one of the young women of the day who is inclined to make the most of her opportunities and who seems to possess a talent for writing that will no doubt some day place her on the pedestal of fame. She graduated last June from the university at Ann Arbor and is devoting her attention to newspaper work. Recently there appeared in the editorial columns of the Chicago Times-Herald two articles from her pen that evidenced her ability. One was on the subject of the Boers and the Transvaal troubles, both at the present time and during the war of 1881. The other was on the Chinese question of today.

NEWSPAPER CARRIER'S LOSS.—A newspaper carrier of the Republic lost two route books yesterday covering a part of the south-eastern district of the city. The books contained signed receipts and he is naturally anxious to recover them, fearing otherwise that some unauthorized person will canvass this territory and fail to properly account for his receipts. His patrons are therefore cautioned to pay no money to strangers.

THE BOY WAS SLEEPING AT A TABLE IN THE reading room of the hotel, and his books on it. When he awoke to go the books had already gone. Everything about the place was turned upside down. He fears from the manner in which they disappeared that they have fallen into the hands of some one who will make an improper use of them.

COUNCIL MEETING.—The regular monthly meeting of the city council was held last night at which little was done beside the auditing of the current bills. The claim of Hamilton & Armstrong for $250 for prosecuting the case of the city against A. A. Long and his bondsmen was referred, as was also a proposition to put a telephone in the fire engine house. City Health Officer Dr. Hughes called attention to the unsanitary condition of the city. A time of year when hundreds of visitors are coming here on urgent invitations and representations that this is a health resort. He suggested the employment of more scavenger wagons and the adoption of a regulation requiring owners of large buildings to turn the water from roofs into drains and sewers. It resolved to enforce an order heretofore made regarding the leveling of the site of the old Dutch ditch in order that that disreputable old waterway might be forever removed from the sight and memory of men. The meeting was the briefest on record. Councilman Pickas was not present at all, and Councilman Morford excused himself for a few minutes to go away in his capacity of probate judge and marry a couple. When at the end of an hour and a half he had not come back the council adjourned.

SAW IT IN THE REPUBLICAN.—It seems as if The Republican were read everywhere by everybody. A letter was received at this office yesterday from H. Simpson, a jeweler of Albuquerque, calling attention to the following telegraphic dispatch from New Haven, Conn., lately printed in The Republican: "George Donnelly of New York city was arrested here this afternoon while trying to pawn jewelry worth $3,000. The New Haven police are satisfied that it is stolen property and have notified the New York police. The articles include a lady's stick-pin, clover leaf in shape, with three diamonds setting." From the description of some of the jewelry Mr. Simpson suspects that he might aid the New Haven police. His place was robbed last June of jewelry amounting to many thousands of dollars, for the return of which and the recovery of the thieves he offers a reward of $500. He has been scanning the papers closely for a description of jewelry sought to be pawned in all parts of the United States, but he never saw anything until he read the above dispatch in The Republican. He believes that the jewelry found in the possession of Donnelly is a part of his late stock and he has begun communications with the chief of police of New Haven.

FORTUNE WAITED TWENTY YEARS.—Jesse Walters, a Rough Rider, is in a way to come into a small fortune which he knew was coming to him, but didn't know where it was and had long ago given up hope of getting it. About twenty years ago his father was killed in a mill at Butte, Mont., and his mother subsequently married a man named Vaughan. Walters was very young and an account of the remarriage of his mother, soon all that was remembered of his father was a vague idea that his father was heir to an estate somewhere in New England, and even that recollection grew shadowy. Some time ago Walters was in a Phoenix saloon and got into conversation with a bartender who was at Butte at the time his father was killed and knew something about the inheritance. On information received from the bartender Walters wrote to parties at Butte and yesterday received a letter from a man who told him that he was the administrator of his father's estate, the principal item of which is that New England inheritance, amounting to $4,000. He writes that his administration has given him no end of trouble and he wants to get it off his hands. He knew Walters and ever since his appointment he has been trying to find him. The younger Walters stands ready to relieve him of the burden of twenty years.

HIS WISH.

Boys haven't always a great imagination, but most of them have a good deal of tenacity. A man wishing to make himself pleasant to the little brother of his betrothed, told him to wish for something, and he would give it to him. "A box of chocolates," said the boy. "What else?" asked the generous lover. "Another box of chocolates." "Oh, but wish for something else. Your little stomach couldn't hold all those chocolates." "Well, then," answered the boy, "another stomach."—Household Words.
